

Room F will contain the Competitions for which the following Prizes are offered.

PRIZES FOR COMPETITIONS.

Prizes will be awarded as follows by THE BRITISH JOURNAL OF NURSING:—

Prize, £3 3s., for the most instructive exhibit sent by a League of Nurses.

Prize, £2 2s., for the most useful invention by a Nurse for the comfort of the sick.

Prize, £1 1s., for the best group of three dolls dressed in any uniform, not to exceed 10 inches in height; workmanship and neatness will be tests of excellence.

A Prize of £2 is offered by Miss Musson for the best exhibit of six splints padded by Nurses, to include Thomas' hip splint, angular splint, tenotomy splint and a Macintyre.

A Prize of £1 is offered by Miss Musson for the best set of six water colour paintings of rashes or skin eruptions.

A Prize of £1 is offered by Miss Waind, Galen House, Guildford, for the best "makeshift" in nursing.

Miss Buckingham offers a Prize of £1 1s., for the best adaptation in a private house—open to private Nurses only.

A Prize of £1 1s., is offered by Miss Bodley, for the best Invalid's Tray to be shown on June 9th, consisting of the following dishes: Soup, fish, sweet and cake. Cost not to exceed 2s.

In Room G will be found Exhibits of the Birmingham School Nurses, organised by Miss Drew and Miss N. Brett.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE—ROOM B.

Enquiries. Notification and Deposit of Articles lost or found. Tickets for the various Social Events, &c. Members are requested to return to the Secretary any tickets they may be unable to use, as these are limited in number and may be transferred to other members.

CONFERENCE BADGE.

White riband banneret. N.C.T.N. Birmingham, 1914. With Coat of Arms of the City, and the motto of the University of Birmingham—"Per ardua ad alta" ("Through difficulties to the heights"); and the motto of the City of Birmingham—"Forward."

These badges, price 2d., can be obtained from the Hon. Sec.

THE CATALOGUE.

The Catalogue of the Conference and Exhibition, price 2d., will be on sale. The cover has been specially designed for the Conference by Miss Violetta Thurstan.

The Programme of the Conference will be found on page xix of our advertisement columns.

HOSPITALS ON VIEW.

TO MEMBERS OF CONFERENCE.

Children's Hospital, Broad Street, Wednesday, 2-3; Ear Hospital, Thursday, 2-4; Eye Hospital, Wednesday and Thursday, 2-6; General Hospital, Steelhouse Lane, any afternoon, 2-4; Homoeopathic Hospital, Easy Row, Thursday, 2-4; Jaffray Hospital, Erdington, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 3-4; Maternity Hospital, Love-day Street, Tuesday, 2-4; Orthopaedic Hospital, Newhall Street, Wednesday, 2-4; Queen's Hospital, Islington Row, Thursday and Friday, 2-4 (tea will be served); Women's Hospital, Sparkhill, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, 12-1.30, and 2-5.30.

THE TRADES' EXHIBITS.

The Trades' Exhibits, which will form an important and attractive section of the Exhibition, will include those of a number of firms of world-wide repute.

Stand A 1.—HORLICK'S MALTED MILK Co., Slough, Bucks. The stand of this firm at exhibitions is always most attractive, and widely patronised, and it is certain that the more this ideal food is known the more it will be appreciated and used.

Stand A 2.—MESSRS. DOWN BROS., 21 and 23, St. Thomas's Street, London. This firm, which is arranging an exhibit, has a reputation which it would be difficult to excel as manufacturers of surgical instruments and appliances, and of aseptic hospital furniture.

Stand B 1.—MESSRS. SOUTHALL BROS. & BARCLAY, LTD., Lower Priory, Dalton Street, and Dale End, Birmingham. The Hygienic Specialities of Messrs. Southall are known and esteemed far and wide, and an opportunity of inspecting a complete exhibit of their famous goods is sure to be largely utilised. Those who are interested in the manufacture of the finished article will no doubt avail themselves of Messrs. Southall's invitation to visit their mills at Saltley.

Stand B 2.—MESSRS. J. & J. TAUNTON, Sherbourne Road, Birmingham, will show their bedsteads, which are highly esteemed, and which are designed to meet the varied needs of the sick and disabled.

Stand B 3.—MESSRS. CUXSON, GERRARD & Co., LTD., Oldbury and Birmingham, will exhibit their surgical dressings, and other hospital requisites, which are widely known and used in hospitals in the Midlands.

Stand B 4.—MESSRS. SALT & SON, LTD., 5 and 6, Cherry Street, Birmingham, and 13, Wimpole Street, London, surgical cutlers to the King, will exhibit their surgical, medical and maternity belts and corsets, patent varus boots, and other orthopaedic appliances.

Stand C 1.—MESSRS. NEWTON, CHAMBERS & Co., LTD., Thorncliffe, Sheffield, will show their Izal preparations, which are in much demand, not only for medical and surgical purposes, but also for the toilet.

Stand C 2.—MESSRS. W. H. BAILEY & SON, LTD., 38, Oxford Street, London. This well-known firm will exhibit several novelties, and we especially desire to direct the attention of nurses and midwives to the new Midwife's Case. This has a washable lining, and is very compact and

previous page

next page