

generously with the large and indispensable body of trained nurses for which it is responsible.

In this connection we would urge all nurses—especially those intending to do private nursing or to emigrate, to gain experience in the nursing of infectious diseases. No nurse can consider herself thoroughly trained who has not practical experience in Fever Nursing.

THE MEDICAL, NURSING, AND HEALTH EXHIBITION AND CONFERENCE AT GLASGOW.

Mr. Ernest Schofield has organised a Medical, Nursing and Health Exhibition and Conference at Glasgow similar to that now arranged annually by him in London, and it will be held in the Old Zoo Buildings from February 7th to 11th next. Miss Rennet and Miss Appleby are doing the actual organisation, but a small sub-committee of Matrons composed of Miss Melrose, Miss H. Gregory-Smith, Miss A. W. Gill, Miss A. M. Peterkin, and Miss M. L. Chalmers, are arranging the speakers and the programme of the Conference Sessions.

THE NORTHERN NURSING & MIDWIFERY CONFERENCE. PROGRAMME.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7TH.

7.30 p.m. Chair: Sir Samuel Chisholm, Bart., LL.D.

"A Popular Address on Scientific Knowledge and Method in Relation to the Nursing Profession," by Carstairs C. Douglas, M.D., D.Sc., F.R.S.E.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 9TH.

3 p.m. Chair: Miss Haldane, LL.D.

"Nursing in the Royal Navy." Paper by Miss Emily Dann, Superintending Sister, read by Miss Mary Clark, Superintending Sister, Q.A.R.N.N.S.

"Army Nursing and Territorial Nursing." Miss Sidney Browne, R.R.C. Matron-in-Chief, Territorial Force Nursing Service.

"Colonial Nursing." Miss Alice Middleton, Sec. Colonial Nursing Association.

"Missionary Nursing." N. Martyn-Clark, M.D.

7.30 p.m. Chair: Lady Chisholm.

"The Need for a Midwives Act in Scotland." A. K. Chalmers, M.D., Medical Officer of Health for Glasgow.

"Poor Law Nursing and its Progress in Scotland." Miss M. Wright, Matron, Stobhill Hospital, Glasgow.

"School Nursing." Miss H. Garvie, School Nurse, Glasgow.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10TH.

3 p.m. Chair:

"The Tuberculosis Dispensary: A Sphere for Nurses." W. Leslie Lyall, M.B., M.R.C.P.Ed.

"District Nursing." Miss Peterkin, Superintendent, Scottish Branch Q.V.J.I.

"Private Nursing."

7.30 p.m. Chair: Lady Stirling Maxwell.

"Progress of Fever Nursing in Scotland." Miss H. G. Landles, Matron, City of Glasgow Fever Hospital, Ruchill.

"Mental Nursing: Female Nursing on the Male Side." Miss Thyne, West House, Morning-side, Edinburgh.

"Modern Requirements of Mental Nursing." Miss MacBean, Matron, Hawkhead Asylum, Paisley.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11TH.

3 p.m. Chair: Mrs. W. G. Black.

"The Importance of Ophthalmic Training for Nurses." Ernest Thomson, M.A., M.D.

"Thrift for Nurses." Mrs. Louis H. M. Dick, Secretary, Royal National Pension Fund for Nurses.

"Business Methods." Miss C. J. Wood, Founder of the Nurses' Hostel.

7.30 p.m. Chair: Miss A. W. Gill, Lady Superintendent of Nurses, Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh.

"Some Problems in the Treatment of Venereal Disease." Miss A. Louis McIlroy, M.D., D.Sc.

"The Nursing of Venereal Cases." Miss Wilson, Matron, Lock Hospital, Glasgow.

"Public Health Visiting." Miss I. M. Catto, Sanitary Dept., Glasgow.

Trained Nurses, Midwives, and Certificated Health Workers can have a free ticket of admission to the Conference and Exhibition, and a voucher for reduced railway fares. Apply immediately to: The Organiser, Scottish Nursing Conference, Palace Hotel, Buchanan Street, Glasgow, enclosing three penny stamps.

REFLECTIONS

FROM A BOARD ROOM MIRROR.

The Queen's Hospital for Children, Hackney Road, has received £1,000 from the Referee Children's Fund for its seaside branch, the Little Folks' Home at Bexhill.

The Hampstead and North-West London Hospital has received a donation of £1,000 from Mr. H. Gosschalk to name a bed in memory of his wife.

The Memorial Tablet to Lord Lister unveiled last week at King's College by Lord Rayleigh marks the appreciation both of his services to mankind and his intimate connection with the College. The tablet is placed in the corridor outside the chapel.

The Directors of Perth's beautiful new Infirmary, which will be ready for opening early in April, are anxious to secure the services of a member of the Royal family to perform the ceremony. If their efforts are successful Perth will hail a Royal visit with great satisfaction.

previous page

next page