CARE OF THE WOUNDED.

The King and Queen gave immense pleasure by visiting the Naval and Military Hospitals during their tour in the West Country. Their Majesties also paid a visit to the Royal Sailors' Rest, founded by Miss Weston at Plymouth.

The Queen and Queen Alexandra have both given their patronage to "Our Day," which is to be held on October 21st on behalf of the work of the British Red Cross Society and the Order of St. John for the British wounded.

The Queen has given £50, and Queen Alexandra £100, to the Anglo-Russian Hospital.

Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein on Saturday opened the new British Red Cross Military Hospital built on Crown property at Englefield Green, Windsor. The Red Cross Society contributed £10,000 towards its cost and the rest of the money was collected by Princess Christian.

We report with very sincere regret the death of Sir Claude M. Macdonald, G.C.M.G., G.C.V.O., K.C.B. Quite recently Sir Claude was appointed General Secretary of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem in England. Since the war he took a very active part in the work at "the Gate," and was specially chivalrous towards and appreciative of the work of the nurses engaged by the Order, and working far and wide at home and abroad. He will be greatly missed by a very wide circle.

The British Red Cross Society is organizing work parties for the supply of medical and surgical necessities and comforts for the wounded.

It is hoped that women will assist by either working at the various branches that are being established, or at their homes.

The Canadian Red Cross Society has sent a generous gift of £10,706 12s. 7d. to the British Red Cross Society. Canada has sent many munificent gifts for the sick and wounded.
