A FALSE RUMOUR.

As the rumour has been circulated that Mrs. Bedford Fenwick has accepted office on the Council of the Nursing College, Limited, she wishes to emphatically contradict this statement. Mrs. Fenwick remains, as she has always been, in favour of the Legal Registration of Trained Nurses by Act of Parliament, and of an elected Governing Body for the profession of nursing, on which the nurses who form the electorate are adequately represented. She considers the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the College of Nursing, Limited, designed to hand over the absolute control of trained nurses to a nominated autocratic Council of those who either employ them or to their representatives, and she would consider it a very grave betrayal of trust towards her fellow-nurses to accept office under such a Constitution.

Mrs. Fenwick's advice to all those who have the good government of the nursing profession at heart is to take no part in connection with the College of Nursing until after the Conference on the Nurses' Registration Bill, when the position will be clearly defined.

THE COLLEGE OF NURSING, Ltd.

On March 27th, the College of Nursing, Ltd., was registered as a Limited Liability Company at Somerset House—its number on the index being No. 143,404.
