

THE EDITH CAVELL HOMES OF REST FOR NURSES.

The anniversary of the death of Edith Cavell was chosen as the occasion of two most interesting functions in support of the Homes of Rest for Nurses at Coombe Head, Haslemere, and Little Wych, Bridport, which bear her name, and offer hospitality to nurses in need of rest and change. The headquarters of the Council of the Homes, which have as Patrons H.M. Queen Alexandra and H.M. the Queen of the Belgians, are at 25, Victoria Street, London, S.W., and the Chairman, is Lt.-Col. Sir Richard C. Temple, Bart., C.B., C.I.E.

CONCERT AT THE MANSION HOUSE.

The Concert held in the Egyptian Hall at the Mansion House on October 17th by kind permission of the Lord Mayor, who presided in a most genial and happy way, and the Lady Mayoress was arranged by the Music in Wartime (Concerts) Committee, and was under the patronage of H.R.H. Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll, who was prevented by indisposition from being present.

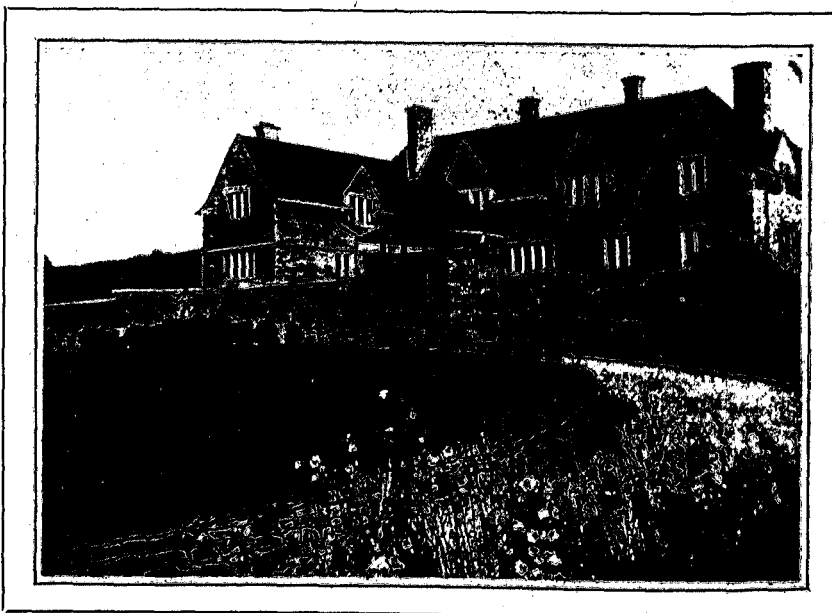

The Music in Wartime Committee is composed of artists who go round the country singing, and entertaining soldiers. Those who gave their services at the Mansion House Concert were Miss Ruth Vincent, Miss Muriel Foster, Mr. Walter Hyde, Mr. Frederick Taylor, Miss Margaret Cooper, Miss Mary Harrison, Miss Beatrice Harrison, Mr. Mark Hambourg, and Mr. G. O'Connor Morris. It is difficult to make special mention of any of the items on a programme when all were of so high a level, but the violin and violoncello solos of the Misses Harrison will not easily be forgotten.

THE PRUSSIAN LAW IN BELGIUM AND NURSE EDITH CAVELL.

The lecture given at the Æolian Hall, New Bond Street, W., on Friday, October 12th, by M. Gaston de Leval, was of quite exceptional interest. The speaker was introduced by the Honble. Sir Arthur Stanley, as the gallant Belgian gentleman, who, at very great risk to himself, and at infinite trouble, did his utmost in most difficult and dangerous circumstances to save Nurse Cavell from the death the Germans had planned for her.

The chairman said further that in a school for the training of French nurses on the lines that
