

—the women who have suffered—are turning towards us, and where could one find better material for future nurses, than in the women who have suffered?

They are turning towards us, turning towards us for help, for sympathy. Must it ever be said of us that outstretched hands and pleading eyes have begged for bread, and all we have offered in return was a stone?

WEDDING BELLS.

We were only able to announce very briefly last week the marriage of Miss L. A. Morgan, Matron of the Northern Hospital, Winchmore Hill, to the Rev. D. D. F. Macdonald, M.A., of Swinton, Berwickshire, at St. Paul's, Winchmore Hill.

The officiating clergy were the Rev. E. Coulthard (Vicar) and the Rev. A. King.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, including the following:—

Dr. Matthews, the Medical Superintendent of the Northern Hospital, and Mrs. Matthew gave a handsome silver antique hot-water jug, and the two Assistant Medical Officers a cheque and gold bracelet.

The Matrons under the Metropolitan Asylums Board, a silver Georgian teapot.

The two Assistant Matrons, Home Sister and Dispenser at the hospital, a sugar basin and cream jug to match the above.

The Ward Sisters, past and present, a silver coffee pot and oil and vinegar silver-mounted cruet. The Nursing Staff an inlaid writing bureau with inscription on brass plate. The Steward's office a silver crumb scoop. The Domestic Staff, a dozen silver fish knives and forks.

Mrs. Macdonald's many friends in the nursing world, including the members of the Matrons' Council, the Society for the State Registration of Trained Nurses, and the Fever Nurses' Association, will unite in wishing her every happiness in her married life.

THE PASSING BELL.

We greatly regret to record the death on the 19th October, at a nursing home at Hampstead, of Miss Katharine Stuart Macqueen, Principal of the Royal College of St. Katharine, Poplar, younger daughter of the late Rev. John Macqueen, Kirkmichael, Banffshire. A memorial service was held at St. Katharine's Chapel, Regent's Park, on Wednesday.

Miss Macqueen, who was known to many nurses through her connection with the Queen Victoria Jubilee Institute, was held in sincere respect and affection, and her death is a great loss to St. Katharine's College.
