

SOME OF THE REMAINING CONTRIBUTIONS TO OUR SPECIAL PRIZE COMPETITION.

(First announced in our issue of November 20th, 1890).

SUBJECT.

"A Book or Books of the value of Half-a-Guinea will be given to the Competitor whose Sketch, in pen and ink, of a Badge most suitable for the British Nurses' Association shall be considered the best."

The Prize was awarded, after very careful adjudication, to MISS CLOSE.

Consolation Prizes to—

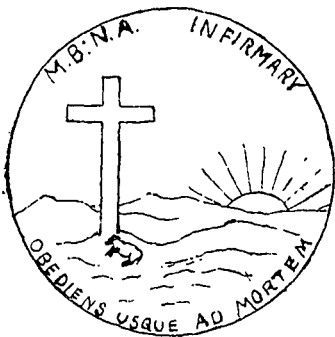

MISS MARY SPANTON, M.B.N.A.
MISS M. JOHNSON, M.B.N.A.

RULES.

- 1.—Anyone can compete provided such Competitor be engaged in Nursing work, and the Competition is therefore open to Probationers.
- 2.—The sketch must be drawn with pen and black ink on cards not less than four inches square.
- 3.—The colours to be used must also be quoted—for example, state whether silver on blue ground, gold on crimson, and so on.
- 4.—Say what part of the dress the badge should be fixed to.
- 5.—Sketches must reach the office of THE NURSING RECORD not later than Saturday, December 18th next.
- 6.—The umpires' decision to be final.

Honourable Mention.

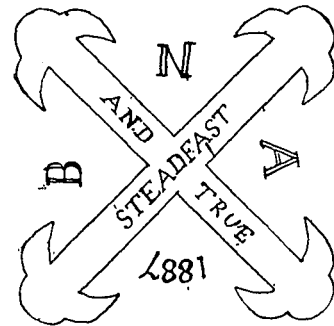

MISS SARAH B. HAMMON
(Not "Harrison," as incorrectly mentioned in our issue of the 15th).
MISS JENNIE STONE.

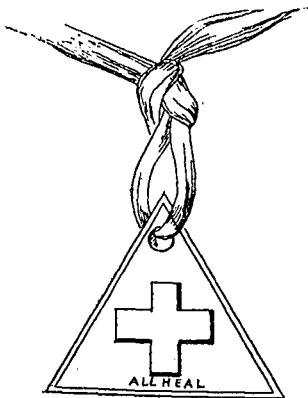

MISS JOSEPHINE WILKINS.

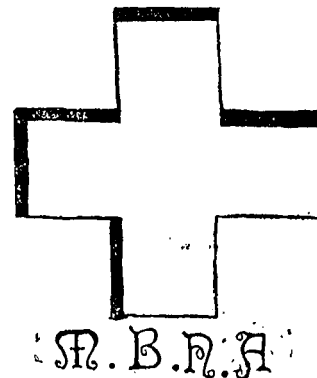

DR. HEYWOOD SMITH, M.B.N.A.

MISS E. SANDERSON, M.B.N.A.

MISS CLARA MITCHELL.

MISS HOSKIER.

previous page

next page