RESIGNATION.

Miss Mary Lord retired on November 11th, 1920, having held the post of Matron of the London County Mental Hospital at Banstead for nearly twenty-three years. The Committee expressed their great appreciation of her long service, and wished her renewed health to enjoy a well-earned pension. As a mark of esteem the staff presented her with a cheque to be used as she preferred. Miss Lord has worked in mental hospitals for thirty-six years. She has for many years been a member of the Matrons' Council of Great Britain and Ireland, and has done most admirable service for mental nurses in representing their interests in relation to State Registration when their organisations did nothing.

The Assistant Matron, Miss Francis Mary Wallace, has been appointed Matron.

TIME TO STOP FLAG DAYS.

Annie Deal, an Armistice Day flag seller on behalf of the Discharged Soldiers' and Sailors' Workshops Association, was charged at Bow Street Police Court with the theft of money realised by the sale of flags.

On three occasions she took money from persons in Trafalgar Square, but did not place it in the box provided for that purpose. She was seen to take a coin, and after looking round she slipped it into her pocket.

She was dealt with under the Commissioner's Regulations in connection with the selling of flags, and fined 40s. on each of the three charges or one month in default.
