

Study Window," or the severity of "John Watchful," but, alas! is there not a cause?

To act and think for herself is the right every Nurse should claim, and above all the talk of Associations, schemes, unions, &c., let her never forget her individual liberty, for it is to the individual, appeals must now be made. To speak of unity serves only to bring about discord, so for a time each Nurse must be happy if she can act for herself. When she can act with others she will be stronger, and when she has helped to make the majority she will be strongest.

Will you allow me to add that I hope the Nursing Record may long continue a "dangerous periodical."—Yours faithfully,
NOBODY.

REPLIES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Sister Marian.—A little too strong. Thanks for support all the same.

Badge.—Apply to the Secretary, 8, Oxford Circus Avenue, W.

Staff Nurse.—We fear you have little chance in London; try a provincial Hospital.

Mrs. Graham.—Purchase the Nursing Record Series; all are useful publications for your purpose.

Home Hospital.—We distinctly disapprove of the system of a Nurse being on duty day and night. It is impossible for any woman, under such circumstances, to perform her duties in a satisfactory manner, or to maintain her health. Bring it to the notice of the Surgeon in charge of the case.

Nurse Edith (Settle).—Write direct to Miss Norman, Lady Superintendent, Royal Military Hospital, Netley; she will give you all the information you desire.
