

The return journey was made along the Swiss side of the Lake, and was even more beautiful than that of the morning, especially when Mont Blanc showed roseate and lovely in the evening sunset.

AN EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE.

As the Annual Meeting of the National Council of Nurses of Great Britain does not take place until November, the President felt sure that the visitors from Great Britain would wish to express their gratitude to Dr. and Mme. Rollier as soon as possible, and accordingly wrote to Dr. Rollier in their name.

To Mrs. E. G. FENWICK,
President of the National Council of Nurses of Great Britain.

DEAR MRS. FENWICK,—Please accept my warmest thanks for your very kind letter and the cheque enclosed. I have been deeply touched with this donation which will be applied to our charity work, and especially for an English patient. May I ask you to kindly thank most heartily the members of the National Council of Nurses of Great Britain who so generously contributed to this gift.

Your visit here is one of our most pleasant memories. With renewed thanks and best regards, believe me,

Yours sincerely,

of its members who visited Leysin, on July 31st, of the very great kindness and hospitality of yourself and Mme. Rollier. We all realised the privilege of listening to your instruction and of seeing a little of the wonderful work there under your direction. We hope it may be the means of spreading still further a knowledge of the prophylactic and curative value of heliotherapy, and particularly of the social value of the treatment which you emphasised in your intensely interesting lecture, and which is perhaps not yet realised so much as its other aspects.

I enclose a cheque for £5 5s. which we hope you will accept as a small gift from the National Council of Nurses of Great Britain to be applied in furtherance of your splendid and invaluable work for the world at large.

With cordial regards,

I am, yours sincerely,

ETHEL G. FENWICK, President.
