

YOU, NURSE!

All you have to do . . .

Answer three simple questions on the New Sunshine Glaxo. These will be sent to you on receipt of a post card or the coupon below.

The judges—three prominent members of the Medical Profession—will not take into consideration literary skill or unreasoned praise of Sunshine Glaxo.

Your Professional knowledge and experience—your understanding of the possibilities of this wonderful sunshine food—your opinions sincerely set down—these alone will win you a substantial cash prize.

The competition closes on October 30th, so send for the questions now and have all the time possible to think over and prepare your answers.

Fill in this coupon—cut it out and send it to Glaxo House—56 Osnaburgh St., London, N.W. 1.
An ordinary post-card will do just as well if you cannot get hold of the coupon. Do it at once!
