

you sent me. I feel very privileged at being accepted as a Foundation Fellow of the British College of Nurses.

"I am confident that the College will prove a great benefit to the Nursing World, and help to form another link to bind the Colonial Nurses with the Mother Country. I shall value my Diploma for its representation of all that is highest in the nursing profession.

"I enjoy reading the JOURNAL from cover to cover for the valuable and interesting information it contains."

Miss A. E. Little, Newmarket: "I write to thank you so much for sending Diploma and value it very much. It is so beautiful."

Miss C. van Crans, St. Helens: "Thanks very much for the Diploma forwarded, which I found on my return. I am sorry for the delay in acknowledgment, but I have not had a moment to spare since I took up work again. I was glad to have seen the College Headquarters, which are very beautiful. Thank you for showing me over."

Miss R. E. Wallace, East Dulwich: "I beg to acknowledge with many thanks the Diploma of the British College of Nurses. I am very proud of it, and I consider that it is most artistic and dignified."

Miss Elizabeth Ross, Olean: "This is to acknowledge the Diploma of the British College of Nurses. It is extremely gratifying to see that the pioneers in nursing have been recognised in such a nice way."

Miss Alice Maud Filley, Greenock: "I received yesterday, by registered post, my lovely Diploma. I beg to thank you for same. It is a delightful and precious possession—enshrined in it being the names of those who have done so much for nursing during long and arduous years of pioneer work. We are all proud of Florence Nightingale, and those that immediately followed her. All honour is due to them. I had the pleasure of meeting Miss Lennox, another pioneer, in Edinburgh lately, at the age of 98. She is an amazing personality."

Miss Annie T. Smyth, East Suffolk and Ipswich Hospital: "I write to acknowledge receipt of my Diploma. It gives me great pleasure to possess such a beautiful copy and to be a Member of such a noble Institution as the British College, and I will do my best to live up to its standards. The JOURNAL I look forward to each month."

Miss Florence Pickard, Rugby: "Thank you very much for beautiful Diploma. . . . There is no need to say how much it will be prized."

Miss Jessie Laing, Newcastle-on-Tyne: "Thank you for the lovely Diploma of Fellowship, which I have just received. I treasure it very much, and feel it is a stimulus for further endeavour and great reward for past labours. It is my great desire to visit the College Headquarters at the earliest possible date. Again thanking you and wishing the College every success."

Miss Helen M. Boyle, Ayr, N.B.: "The beautiful Diploma received on Friday. . . . I will give it a place of honour in my home."

Election of Fellows and Members.

Applications were received and Fellows and Members elected.

Financial Statement.

A satisfactory Financial Statement of subscriptions from Fellows and Members was presented.

Test Examination for Sister Tutors' Grants.

The results of the Test Examination for the Grants of £50 each for Sister Tutors were announced; the percentage of marks gained was most satisfactory.

The successful candidates—Miss Margaret Doris Ball and Miss Mabel M. Pearce Siggers—entered for the course at King's College, in connection with London University, in October.

Gifts to the College.

Mrs. Bedford Fenwick: "The Cause," by Mrs. Ray Strachey.

Miss M. Breay: "Aids to Tropical Medicine," by C. F. Brooke.

Miss J. M. G. Black: "Mother India."

Miss M. S. Cochrane, R.R.C.: "Historical Account of Charing Cross Hospital and Medical School."

Miss M. Chadwick (Author): "Psychology for Nurses."

Dr. E. L. Hopewell-Ash: "On Middle Age and Keeping Young."

Miss D. A. Snell (Rome): "The First Red Cross" (St. Camillus de Lellis, 1550-1614), by Cecilia Oldmeadow. "Saint Vincent de Paul," by Emmanuel de Broglie. "Saint Catherine of Siena, her Life and Times," by C. M. Antony.

Miss Hetherington: Magazines.

Miss A. Simpkin: Ivory Paper Knife for use in Board Room, carved by a Central African native.

Miss C. B. Martin: Donation of Three Guineas.

Miss K. Latham, R.R.C.: £1 ls. towards Book of Remembrance.

Miss E. M. Holly: Five Shillings for Flowers.

Miss F. Smythe: Four large Glass Flower Vases.

Miss M. G. Allbutt, Miss Elsie Evans, Miss E. MacKenzie, Mrs. Peake, and Miss B. Treasure: Flowers.

Miss F. Smyth: Two large bunches of glorious violets.

Date of Next Meeting.

The next Meeting of the Council was fixed for November 24th, at 2 p.m., and the Meeting then terminated.

THE COLLEGE BADGE.

We desire to notify Fellows and Members that the College Badge in silver is now ready, and can be obtained from the Secretary, 39, Portland Place, London, W.1, price 10s., inscribed on the back with name and number, and registered.

FIXTURES FOR NOVEMBER.

AT 39, PORTLAND PLACE, LONDON, W.

On November 15th and 22nd Miss Gertrude Dearnley, M.D., will give the last two of a course of six Lectures on Gynaecology, at 6.30 p.m.

On November 19th and 26th Dr. Worster-Drought, M.R.C.P., M.R.C.S., will give the first two of a Course of three Lectures on Encephalitis Lethargica at 8.15 p.m. Fee to Fellows and Members, 3s. for the Course, or a shilling each Lecture. To non-members, 4s. 6d. for the Course, or 1s. 6d. each Lecture.

On November 20th Mrs. Blanco White, of the National Union of Societies for Equal Citizenship, will lecture

previous page

next page