

College may be received by yourself, as Home Secretary, to place before you the need for protective legislation for sufferers from this disease. Diploma which arrived in very good condition. I am very proud to be a Foundation Member of the College.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
GRACE REYNOLDS HALE,
Secretary.

Correspondence.

A number of letters were read and considered:—

1. A letter from Miss M. E. Misner, F.B.C.N., Kapuskasing, Ontario, thanking the President for her "very precious gift," the Badge of the College, received on Christmas Day.

(The Chairman explained that the President had presented the Badge of the College to Miss Pearl Morrison and Miss Misner, Canadian Fellows, who came to this country last year to study nursing conditions.)

2. Letter from the Secretary, Lady Grigg Welfare League, Nairobi, giving particulars of the terms and conditions of service of Lady Grigg Nurses.

3. A letter from the Deputy Medical Officer of Health, Borough Sanatorium for Infectious Diseases, Sunderland, re Salaries of Matrons and Sisters.

4. From Miss E. J. Haswell, Local Consul for Liverpool and district, proposing, with the approval of the Council, to give an "At Home" every month at 17, Princes Avenue, Liverpool, "to keep the Fellows and Members in touch with one another and to discuss any question of mutual interest in furthering the usefulness and well-being of the College and the Profession in general."

This offer was accepted with great pleasure.

5. A letter from a Fellow thanking the Council for legal advice.

6. A letter from a Fellow asking for the advice of the Council in a matter of serious importance.

7. A letter from a Fellow asking for benevolent help. The Council decided to recommend her for a Grant of £10.

Letters of thanks from Miss E. F. Brownsdon and Miss I. M. G. Davy for Grants of £50 towards their expenses in attending the International Congress of Nurses at Montreal.

Thanks for Diplomas.

Miss B. L. J. Gandour, Montayat Palace, Ramlet, Egypt:—"I beg to acknowledge receipt of the beautiful other day; it came as a very welcome Christmas present. I have had it framed, and it looks so nice hanging in my room."

MISS AGNES HENDERSON, R.G.N., F.B.C.N.

MISS MARY DAVY, S.R.N., F.B.C.N.

The December number of THE BRITISH JOURNAL OF NURSING, containing Christmas wishes I received on Christmas Eve; I was very pleased to have it. I was feeling very far away from my own Hospital and its Christmas festivities which I have so enjoyed for the last five years. I wish the College every success for 1929."

Sister Mary A. Capstack, Rawtenstall, Rossendale:—"I have received my Diploma, for which I thank you. It is beautiful, and most pleased we are that it bears the name of our deeply-esteemed President, who has done so much, how much only God knows, for the Nursing Profession. We were very sorry indeed to hear of her sickness, and hope ere this she is restored to her usual vigour."

Miss Louisa Kate Clarke, East Retford:—"I wish to thank the President and also the Council of the British College of Nurses for my Diploma duly received. I am proud to possess it."

Miss Macwilliam, Totnes:—"Very many thanks for my Diploma, it is beautiful, and I am very pleased indeed to have been elected a Fellow of the British College of Nurses."

Miss Kathleen B. Comerford, Totnes:—"I beg to acknowledge with many thanks the receipt of Diploma for Membership of the British College of Nurses. I am very proud to be a Member. I wish the College every success, and will do my best to live up to its standard."

Miss E. J. Herring, Deal:—"Thank you very much for sending my Diploma, which I think is of a very beautiful design. I shall make it my aim always to live up to and try to promote the high standard of the British College of Nurses."

Miss Adams, Western Hospital, Fulham:—"Thank you for the very beautiful Diploma you sent to me. I hope and trust I shall do all in my power to live up to its very wonderful work."

Miss Julie L. F. Walker, Millbank:—"Thank you very much indeed for my beautiful Diploma, which I received the
