

Thanks for Diplomas.

Miss Margaret B. Turton, Bradford: "I beg to acknowledge receipt of the beautiful Diploma which I received the other day. I am very proud to be a Foundation Fellow of the College."

Miss I. G. Stevens, Chatham: "Thank you very much for my Diploma, which I received just before Christmas. It was a very welcome Christmas present, and it is of such a beautiful design."

Miss A. G. Maclagan, Nazareth: "I hope you will pardon my delay in writing to acknowledge the arrival of the Diploma. I have been so busy until just recently. I think it is very beautiful and I am proud of being its possessor. It is a splendid idea to have the names of all who have done so much for us on the Diploma; it is a constant inspiration and encouragement each time one looks at it. I am looking forward to visiting the College when I return to England."

Miss Alice Torr, Toronto: "I am just writing to tell you that the Diploma arrived safely last week. I was certainly proud to receive it, and shall value it very highly. I shall be signing the statement on the bottom line so that it will be returned to the College in due course, but I hope not for a long while to come. Thank you very much. We are having great changes in our Department, and all my helpers are being dismissed owing to reduction of Staff, so just at present I cannot see how I am going to get to the Montreal Convention, but I shall try very hard to do so, so I may see you there. Thank you for all your kindness and hospitality to me on my visit. I hope to see more of the College when I come again."

Miss A. F. Harniman, Reading: "I thank you very much for the beautiful Diploma, which I was delighted to receive on returning to Headquarters after seven weeks' absence. Trusting you will forgive the delayed acknowledgment. I am sure the names on the Diploma will always inspire me to do my very best under all circumstances."

Miss Dorothy A. Snell, Rome: "I must apologise for not having written long ago to thank you for Diploma of College of Nurses. We have had sickness and death and many things beside. I hope Mrs. Bedford Fenwick is better. Please remember me to her and say how sorry I am to know of her long illness. Here it is the coldest winter I ever remember in Rome, and the Hospital is full of influenza and pneumonia."

Miss E. Hannah Scholes, Detroit, Michigan: "Thank you for my Diploma, which was forwarded to me from Lakewood last week. I am very pleased to possess it and think the design is beautiful. I am at present nursing in one of the largest Hospitals in Detroit."

Miss Annie Robertson Nicoll, Cape Town: "I write to acknowledge receipt of my Diploma, which reached me by Registered Post. I beg to thank you for sending it; it has been very much admired. I am very proud to be a Foundation Fellow of the College."

Miss J. Paterson, Motherwell: "I wish to thank you for the Diploma received some time ago. It is very beautiful and I am proud to possess it."

Miss N. Savage, Paisley: "I beg to thank you for my Diploma, which I received some weeks ago. It is very nice, and I regret not having acknowledged it sooner."

Miss Elizabeth Mosey, Joslin, S. Australia: "I am very pleased to acknowledge receipt of my Diploma, the possession of which makes me feel very proud indeed. I very much enjoy reading the Journals, they are very interesting and instructive. I wish the College the greatest success."
