

15. Sash worn by Miss M. A. Burnett marked "Scutari," a nurse who worked under Miss Nightingale during the Crimean War.

16. War Office Warrant given to Miss M. A. Burnett to work under the orders of the Superintendent of Female Nurses for the British Army in the Crimean War.

17. War Department, Pall Mall, December 26th, 1856, thanking Miss M. A. Burnett for her services as a nurse in the Crimean War; also informing her The Sultan had placed a sum of money with Her Majesty's Government to be shared by the paid nurses, and that she would be entitled to participate in this gift, and would receive £7 4s. 3d.

18. Letter from the Hon. Miss Charlotte Knollys after the above items Nos. 15, 16 and 17 had been shown to H. M. Queen Alexandra.

19. The £1 subscribed by Miss Welch, P.M.R.A. F.N.S., Baghdad was partly used to buy "The Life of Miss Florence Nightingale," by Mrs. Rosalind Nash.

20. Mahogany Show Case, lined velvet to stand on table. Given by Mrs. Bedford Fenwick.

21. Nursing Notes by Miss Florence Nightingale which contains on the Flyleaf a signed letter asking for two of her photographs to be sent to Mrs. Sidney Herbert.

22. Pewter Bleeding Bowl. Given by Miss Cochrane.

23. Church and Empire. Miss M. Welch, P.M.R.A. F.N.S.

24. Letter in reference to the Life of Miss Florence Nightingale by Cook. Given by Miss Bryson.

25. "Yesterday, To-day and for Ever," by the Rev. E. H. Bickersteth, 1875. With inscription:—

Offered to Miss Lees (Mrs. Dacre Craven) and her gallant District Nurses with Florence Nightingale's Easter love. 1877.

I think every one will agree that we have been able to obtain many interesting and valuable additions to our History Section, and I hope every one will still work hard to get money and other objects of interest for this Section of such great interest and value to Fellows and Members of the College.

The President offered an expression of sincere thanks in the name of the Council to Miss Bushby for her indefatigable work and success in promoting the History of Nursing Section. She felt all would agree that she had done wonders. The Report was adopted.

MISS GRAHAM'S REPORT.

Miss Graham had little to report this month, and advised that the change of title of the Sister Tutors' Group to the Tutorial Group should be given wide publicity.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The Secretary reported that 384 communications had been received and 577 sent out since the last meeting.

Three Fellows and ten Members had taken the Obligation at the College.

There have been 87 Visitors to the College. Among them were: Miss Elizabeth Smellie, R.N., Superintendent of the Victorian Order of Nurses of Canada, who was entertained at tea by Miss M. Breay, Miss M. S. Cochrane, R.R.C., Miss K. M. Latham, R.R.C., and Miss I. Macdonald, Councillors. Other distinguished visitors being Miss Effie

J. Taylor, R.N., M.A., Associate Professor, Yale University School of Nursing; Miss Nance Patrick, R.N., of Dunedin, New Zealand, Director of Nursing for the Plunket Society; Miss Elizabeth Burgess, R.N., President of the National League of Nursing Education, U.S.A., and a Professor at Teachers' College, Columbia University; Miss Myra Louise Taylor, Matron of the General Hospital, St. John's, Newfoundland; Mrs. Y. Prop, Socialworker, Apeldoorn in Holland; Miss M. Schoenholzer Lady Superintendent of a Society of Trained Nurses in Zurich, and Examiner of Swiss Mental Nurses; Miss Clara Jones, R.N., of the Florence Nightingale Institute of Honorables, of Los Angeles, California, U.S.A.; Miss Nellie Lorraine, M.B.E., Matron Maude Memorial Hospital, Basra, Iraq; Mrs. Rebecca Strong and friends.

The plaque and engraving of the inscription for the Elizabeth Kennedy Memorial Chair, executed by Heming & Co., Ltd., 28, Conduit Street, W.1, cost £2, leaving a balance in hand from this fund of 1s. 11d.

Miss S. A. Villiers and Miss E. J. Haswell had bought their Robes.

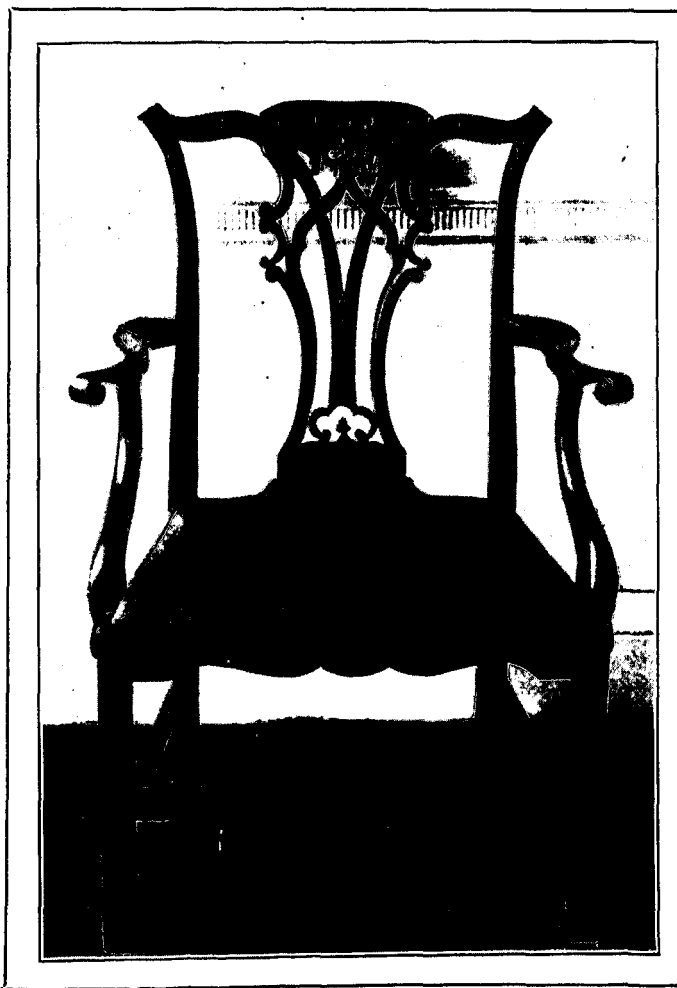

OPENING OF WINTER SESSION.

It was agreed that the opening of the Winter Session should take place on Thursday, October 16th. Tea at 4.30; and at 5.30 the Presentation of the Certificates and the Prize to those who had passed the Examination in Advanced Psychology.

NOMINATION OF HON. OFFICERS, NATIONAL COUNCIL OF NURSES OF GREAT BRITAIN.

The following Nominations for Hon. Officers to the National Council of Nurses were unanimously adopted:—

1. Vice-President: Miss A. Lloyd Still, C.B.E., R.R.C., President, The Nightingale Fellowship.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHAIR.
Elizabeth Kennedy Memorial.

previous page

next page