We have been asked to publish the following official communication: "The PRINCE and PRINCESS OF WALES are anxious to express to HER MAJESTY'S subjects, whether in the United Kingdom, in the Colonies, or in India, the sense of their deep gratitude for the universal feeling of sympathy manifested towards them at a time when they are overpowered by the terrible calamity which they have sustained in the loss of their beloved eldest son. If sympathy at such a moment is of any avail, the remembrance that their grief has been shared by all classes will be a lasting consolation to their sorrowing hearts, and, if possible, will make them more than ever attached to their dear country."

It may not be generally known that the favourite flower of the late lamented DUKE OF CLARENCE was the lily of the valley, and they were these exquisite flowers that were laid around him by the loving hands of his mother and sisters, as he lay on his bed shortly after death. The number of memorial offerings sent in loving remembrance of the young Prince, whom the nation is now mourning, was quite without parallel.

SISTER VICTORIA, of St. Mary's Hospital (of whom a pleasing vignette appears in this week's Queen), was instrumental in sending a lovely wreath from that Hospital. Many Nurses belonging to the London and Country Hospitals also forwarded a beautiful wreath in token of their deep sympathy with the Royal Family in their great grief.

THE COUNTESS OF ZETLAND, on the 15th inst., issued a circular to the Ladies' Committee of the Royal Wedding Presentation, directing the return of all subscriptions collected by them. Imme-
