The Chairman then read the notice convening the

At the Inaugural Meeting held at St. Thomas's Hospital on July 6th, Hon. Officers and a Preliminary Committee had also been elected to form a National Florence Nightingale Memorial Committee in Great Britain.

The Chairman remarked that those who had been present at all the functions and activities of Nightingale Week, and had witnessed the enthusiasm of the International students at their celebrations on July 7th, had had an opportunity of obtaining first-hand knowledge of the scheme in action and the fine work already accomplished by the League of Red Cross Societies, in co-operation with the Bedford College for Women and the College of Nursing.
