LOYAL AND RESPECTFUL CONGRATULATIONS FROM THE ROYAL BRITISH NURSES' ASSOCIATION.

Her Royal Highness the President graciously conveyed the following dutiful message to His Majesty the King on the completion of the twenty-fifth year of his reign.

Her Royal Highness the Princess Arthur of Connaught,
R.R.C., S.R.N.
41, Belgrave Square, S.W.1.

MADAM,—I have the honour to ask your Royal Highness to be graciously pleased to convey to Their Majesties the King and Queen most loyal and respectful congratulations from the Royal British Nurses' Association on the occasion of the completion of the twenty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign. The Members of the Corporation would especially request that your Royal Highness be pleased to give expression to their feelings of gratitude for the solicitude which Their Majesties have shown throughout the past quarter of a century for the well-being of the sick in their kingdom.

I have the honour to be,

Madam,

Your Royal Highness' most obedient servant,
ISABEL MACDONALD,
Secretary.

Home Office,
Whitehall,
May 14th, 1935.

MADAM,—I am directed by the Secretary of State to say that he has been commanded by the King to convey to you His Majesty's thanks for the loyal and dutiful message from the Royal British Nurses' Association on the completion of the twenty-fifth year of His Majesty's Reign and to assure you that His Majesty deeply appreciates the sentiments of loyalty and affection to which it gives expression.

I am,

Madam,

Your obedient Servant,
H. A. STRUTT.

The Secretary,
The Royal British Nurses' Association,
194, Queen's Gate, S.W.7.

KING GEORGE'S JUBILEE TRUST FUND.

To King George's Jubilee Trust Fund we sent a donation of £20, and we thank all those Members who so generously sent subscriptions to this. We have received the usual acknowledgment expressing the thanks of the Prince of Wales.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Annual General Meeting will take place at 194, Queen's Gate, S.W.7, at 3 p.m., on Saturday, June 29th.

TRAINED NURSES' ANNUITY FUND.

The Annual Meeting of the Trained Nurses' Annuity Fund was held at 194, Queen's Gate, on Saturday, May 4th. The Report stated that during the year £700 had been invested towards establishing a fresh annuity. The Fund was still giving seventy annuities to sick and aged nurses which is satisfactory in view of the fact that the income received from investments is, of necessity, very greatly reduced.

DONATIONS TO THE CECILIA LIDDIATT MEMORIAL FUND

Miss J. Weir, £1 1s.; Miss B. Kent, 10s.; Mrs. Hamilton Gibson, 5s. 6d.; Miss A. S. Bryson, 5s.; Miss J. C. Child, R.R.C., 3s.; Miss M. Ball, 2s. 6d.; Mrs. Brameld, 2s. 6d.; Misses J. Farquhar, 2s.; L. M. Havers, 2s.; A. L. McCraw, 2s.; Misses E. A. Birse, M. B. Coulter, J. Dempster, A. M. Hinton, Mary Howard, J. Holmes, Mrs. E. Jacob, Misses E. James, E. L. Macaulay, S. Munro, C. Orw'n, E. Sims, W. P. Solomon, Mrs. Steele, Misses H. M. Williams, M. A. Williams, 1s.

AN EASTER WEDDING.

On Easter Saturday the wedding took place of Miss Monica Brameld, daughter of Mrs. E. Brameld, S.R.N., to Mr. Raymond Holden. The ceremony was performed in Holy Trinity Church, Kensington, by Canon Hannay, and the reception, which was largely attended, was held at the Royal British Nurses' Association's Club, 194, Queen's Gate, S.W.7. The bride looked beautiful in her wedding gown of ivory lace, and she carried a bouquet of dark red roses. The bridesmaids wore dresses of green Nottingham lace with brooches which, with their bouquets composed of lily-of-the-valley, were the gifts of the bridegroom. Mrs. Brameld has made her headquarters at the Club ever since its inception, and she and her daughter planned, soon after the engagement was announced, to hold the wedding here, a decision which gave us all pleasure. Mrs. Holden has made many friends among the nurses, since she first came here as a very small guest, and she received on her wedding day many expressions of good will.

LECTURE—HOUSEWIVES THROUGH THE AGES.

We had a most interesting glimpse into olden time when Miss Helen Brown gave us her lecture on Housewives through the Ages. She chose two special characters for consideration, Mary, daughter of Henry VIII., and Mrs.
