THE GRENFELL CALENDAR, 1937.

We always look forward with pleasurable anticipation to the arrival of the Grenfell Calendar at this time of year, and that for 1937 is as attractive as ever.

The title chosen for the Calendar is "The Romance of Labrador," and the charming picture on the front cover, depicting the scenery and the industries of Labrador and Newfoundland, is reproduced from "The King's Book," by gracious permission of His Late Majesty, King George V. In a few words we cannot do it justice. It must be seen to be appreciated, and must be a source of pleasure throughout the year to its happy possessor.

The quotations at the bottom of each page are from the writings of Sir Wilfred Grenfell and the delightful pictures which appear on each of the 53 pages are reproduced from photographs taken by friends of the Association who have visited the coast of Labrador and Newfoundland.

In addition, space is provided to admit of the use of the Calendar as an engagement diary.

It is a thing of beauty, to possess oneself and to give to one's friends, and there is the joy of knowing that in purchasing these Calendars one is helping the splendid work of Sir Wilfred Grenfell, as they are sold for its benefit.

The price is 3s. 6d., or 4s. including packing and postage. It may be ordered from the Grenfell Association of Great Britain and Ireland, 66, Victoria Street, London, S.W.1, and from the Hon. Mrs. John Scott Maclay, 21, Bothwell Street, Glasgow.
