FASCINATING LONDON.

We have before us a splendid book, "London Town, Past and Present," from which we should enjoy making excerpts for the benefit of members of Congress; but, alas! such a task, to be of value, would need our whole issue.

Take, for instance, St. Paul's Cathedral Church, on the top of the hill named after Lud Gate, where His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury is to address us on Sunday morning, July 18th. It can be seen for miles in every direction, its lovely peristyle, its soaring dome and gleaming cross, known to generations.

"Afloat upon ethereal tides
St. Paul's above the city rides."

THE GUILDHALL OF THE CITY OF LONDON.
Where the International Council of Nurses and Members of Congress are to be received by the Lord Mayor of London and the Lady Mayoress on July 24th.
