As President, Dame Alicia has taken the chair at 10 out of 11 meetings of the Committee of Management, and eight of the nine meetings of the Education Committee.

Collaboration of the International Council of Nurses in Distribution of Literature.

The Quarterly News Bulletin of the Foundation is forwarded by the Headquarters of the International Council of Nurses to all affiliated Nurses' Associations who have not yet formed a Florence Nightingale Committee.

The curriculum and other material published by the Foundation is distributed at the discretion of the Secretary of the International Council of Nurses.

The composition of the National Florence Nightingale Committees, April, 1937, was also handed in.

SHERRY PARTY AT THE UNITED NURSING SERVICES CLUB, W.1.

The Sherry Party at the United Nursing Services Club, W.1, on Wednesday, July 14th, was a very friendly and happy party. A large number of Congress members who responded to the invitation proved the popularity of this well-known Club.

The guests were received by Dame Anne Beadsmore Smith, R.R.C., and soon the rooms were filled and the visitors were enjoying the profusion of lovely flowers with which the Club was decorated, and a number of dainty titbits. The Secretary, Miss M. Steele, R.R.C., was indefatigable in seeing that all the guests were offered a choice of sherry, iced coffee, tea, ices, and the many good things to eat which this club knows so well how to provide.

At every social gathering Congress visitors became more and more friendly, so that few strangers remained as time went on.

Members of Congress who stayed at this popular Club, were enthusiastic in its praise.
