

It was agreed that the approval of the following affiliated hospitals as Training Schools be continued for a period of two years, or for the duration of the War, whichever is the less: Newton Abbot Hospital and the Royal Devon and

Correspondence from the Board of Education was considered, and it was agreed to approve the one-year whole-time Course of Instruction at Princess Mary High School, Halifax; the two-year part-time Course at the Wakefield Technical College; the one-year whole-time Course at the Harrow County School for Girls; and the one-year whole-time Course at Hawnes School, Hayners Park, Beds., for the purposes of Part I. of the Preliminary examination.

The Council then considered in camera the cases of three Registered Nurses reported by the police authorities, and two applications for the restoration of names to the Register.
