CHICAGO, 1893.

ROYAL COMMISSION:

WOMEN'S SECTION. President—H.R.H. PRINCESS CHRISTIAN.

NURSING DEPARTMENT.

The following Prizes are offered for the best sets of dolls, fully dressed, representing the Sister, Staff Nurse, and Probationer of any British Hospital. One Prize of £5, two prizes of £3, three prizes of £2, and four prizes of £1, for the ten best sets in order.

The following are the rules for the competition:—

1. All dolls must be of the same size and height, and must, therefore, be obtained from a manufacturer whose address can be obtained from the undersigned.
2. The clothing must be complete, and must accurately represent the material of the uniform worn in the Hospital represented.
3. Each set must be carefully packed in a wooden box, and must be delivered at the address given below, on or before November 30th of this year.
4. Each doll must bear on a piece of paper stitched to its dress, the full name and address of its exhibitor, and the name of the Hospital whose uniform it represents.
5. The decision of the judges must be accepted as final, and cannot be questioned.
6. The results will be announced in The Nursing Record early in December.
7. The prize dolls will be exhibited at the Chicago Exhibition, and the right is reserved also to exhibit any other sets which may seem suitable, in which case the cost of the dolls, &c., will be paid to the exhibitor, and her name will be stated as the maker.
