

COMMISSIONS are available for ACTIVE SERVICE NURSING

The probability of new large-scale military operations in the near future has made necessary the immediate reinforcement of Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service Reserve.

Commissioned rank in this service—as Army Sisters—will be granted to volunteer Nurses possessing the necessary qualifications who can be spared from their civilian posts.

QUALIFICATIONS

- (1) Candidates must not be over 55 years of age.
- (2) Candidates must be registered by the General Nursing Council for England and Wales or for Scotland or for the Irish Free State, or by the Joint Nursing and Midwives Council for Northern Ireland or such other General Nursing Council for England and Wales ;
AND must possess a certificate of not less than three to four years' training as required, in medical and surgical training, in a hospital or hospitals approved by the General Nursing Council concerned for complete, affiliated, associated or reciprocal training in General nursing;
- (3) Candidates who are employed as Hospital Matrons, Assistant Matrons, Sister Tutors, Practising Health Visitors, District Nurses or Queen's nurses, cannot be accepted.
- (4) Nurses whose applications were rejected more than six months ago because of lacking experience may now make re-application.

RANK AND PAY

Candidates approved for enrolment on the recommendation of the Q.A.A.N. Board will be appointed to Commissions in the Women's Forces in the rank of Sister. (This rank carries the same status as that of a Lieutenant in H.M. Army, and the equivalent badges of rank are worn.)

for full details of Pay, Kit Allowances and how to Apply, call for Leaflet at your local Appointments Office of the Ministry of Labour and National Service, or write to 24 Kingsway, London, W.C.2

previous page

next page