OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS*KING EDWARD'S HOSPITAL FUND FOR LONDON.*SCHOLARSHIP FOR INTERNATIONAL COURSE.

A SCHOLARSHIP to the value of £350 is offered by King Edward's Hospital Fund for London for a course arranged by the Florence Nightingale International Foundation. The course is available to trained nurses on the staff of hospitals in the Fund's area or offered posts in such hospitals on their return. It is to be in some form of hospital nursing and is to prepare for work as ward or departmental sister, preferably in some specified branch such as the care of the chronic sick, nursing in a chest surgery unit, or plastic surgery unit, or other approved speciality. It may be taken in any country where suitable experience is available. Candidates will be expected to give evidence of good general education and of several years' professional experience subsequent to State registration in general nursing. Preference would be given to those nominated by their hospitals with a view to their return to a responsible post in the kind of work chosen for the course. Application forms may be obtained from the DIRECTOR, Division of Nursing (King Edward's Hospital Fund for London), 21, Cavendish Square, W.1, and should be sent in not later than June 24th, 1949. 49
