WE REJOICE IN THE KING'S wonderful restoration to health which brings to our country, and to the whole British Empire, a profound sense of thankfulness and gratitude to those responsible for the medical and nursing skill so successfully administered.

Here we have a charming glimpse of the happy home life for which our Royal Family is renowned. Seated beside his Grandfather the heir-apparent, little Prince Charles, is in earnest conversation with His Majesty concerning the letter he holds and which, we fancy, contains very special greetings on this the anniversary of his Third Birthday.
